BRITISH TRADE WITH LGYPT

Brillish Tradde Wiff LGTY:
We do not deem it necessary to offer any excuse for recurring to this ever-important subject of British trade with Exprt, and we therefore beg leave to call the attention of our readers to the interesting letter from "Phoner"
which we publish in another column. Giancing through some of our consister reports, we mad that one of the causes of shrinange on British trade with foreign countries is that the expenses ofport charges, commission, annihaming of merchandities are higher in the United of merchandise are higher in the United Kingdom than on the Continent. We note, Kingdom than on the Continent. We note, too, moornobration of this, the recent utter-amores of Sir Alfrest Jones, sentor partner in Ender, Dempster and Uo, who has been complaining of the excessive rates of Britan door companies and rainway, which remote competition in the foreign trade more difficult. The harassing restrictions uniquesed of the Board of Trade on British shaps, from which foreign resels are example, furture inamper the extension of our commence and puses a premium on our competitors. A short time back, in an article on Augor-Egyptian trade, we pointed out that much has been hand about the want of emergence of the British membrant as compared with instoring competitors, and we are competed to admit here in Egypt, where there are ample opportunities of judging, that a great dean of it is well-rounded. We are aware that there are certain articleal disadvantages against when British manufacturers and itextremely dimentified content, even in a neutral market such actain. Dumping, for instance, will account for some of the loss of trade in steel and cotted yarn. But dumping will not serve to expans the accessful competition of our rivas in certain. too, in corroboration of this, the recent utter yara. But dumping will not serve to explain the successful competition of our rivals in certain lines of cotton fabrics and in numerous lesimportant articles of manufacture. It is copimportant articles of manusacture. It is espi-cially to these smaller branches oftraic transver should instodured the attention of our country men, for it is in these that traise might set built up to compensate for that which has been lost in the staple articles of export, outlone and metal goods. The statement which appears to-day in a Cairo morning newspaper, to the effect that the 8,000 pounds, which had disappeared, have been bound again, and that the soldiers, who had been arrested on suspecion of having schon the mount, have been released, is totally erroneous and has no foundation in fact. It seems that in the specie van the cases containing the money were arranged in three rows, each case having it sown number and the amount of the money contained therein marked on it. The cases nearest the sidium the amount of the money contained therein marked on it. The cases marked the siding darr of the van contained sums or about £3,000 in Marka Tieresa dollars. The stolen bey was in the middle of the second row and the thief, after lifting out the box from among the others, arranged them so as to fill up the gap in their line. Prom this it would seem more probable than ever that the thref or there's had some time allowed them for effecting their infarrows enterprise. In Lady Cromer's brother, the new Under In Lady Cromer's brother, the new Under Secretary for India, Mr. Brothick will find a col-league who is both able and amiable, and pos-sibly, if occasion serves, a successor to Lord Curzon. The fifth Marquess of Bath has had some valuable official experience as private secretary to the late Earl of Iddelseigh—limi-elf Indian Secretary—and as assistant secre-tary to Lord Goschen when he was at the Treasury.

As Viscount Weymouth he spent six years in the House of Commons as member for the Frome division, and revealed himself as a fluent and ready apeaker with a comprehensive graps of the subjects under debate, and he has been proving himself an exceedingly capable chairman of the Royal Commission on Idiots and Inchrintes He is Lord Lieutenant of Somerset, in which office he succeeded the late Earl of Cork, and he is the owner of some sixty thousand scros, of which the eight-and-46mity thousand which comprise his Wiltshire and Somersetchire properties represent a rent-roll of something like eighty thousand a year.

General de Négrier intends to make a long stay in Egypt and will also make a trip to the Sudan. One of his reasons for visiting Egypt, says a French newspaper, is, "entre autres pro-jets, d'étudier l'organisation des contrées musulnanes qui envoient des missions nombreuses au Maroc, où elles ont acquis une très grande influence."

THE C. M. S. HOSPITAL AT OLD CATRO.

The following circular has been issued— Eight years ago a small hospital, containing accommodation for 25 patients, was built in Old Cairo by the Church Missionary Society, at a cost of £1.60. Four Years later a large dis-pensary building (with waiting rooms for men and for winners, hadroner, and for men

Caro by the Charm Missonary Society, at a cost of £1,00s. Four years later a large dispensive building (with waiting rooms for men and for women, dector's rooms, pharmacy, etc., and a small flat of four rooms on the roof was received in the same compound by means of contributions subout £1,70s. Building with churches of Paddington London. At the time special dorantories, the cast of which was entirely met by contributions from friends in Egypt, were build for the accommodation of cost-of aukholotomiass. Egyptian amenin) and in these dorantories since then no less than £43s cases have been satisfactorily freated.

During the last four years the average number of patients treated every year in the hospital has been £12, and of visits of patients to the dispension of the first part of the dispension of the first part of the first p

We have now decided to crect additional wards on a piece of land which is available in our compound, and thus raise the total number of best took. These new wards will be entirely of separate from the present buildings and will be reserved for the admission and treatment of women and children only, while the existing haspital will be used former. It is expected that, for various reasons, this arrangement will be found in every way more interesting the found in every way more suitable and convenient both for the patients and medical staff, than anything hitherto possible. Planshaw been aiready prepared by A. H. Skynder Eep, M.S.I. F. and it is estimated that the cost of the building will be little short of 22,350. Towards this amount, friends in 52,79t, Australia and New Zesland have already subscribed a little ever £1,900 (which am mediodes a generous gift of £1,850 from 10 exception. It was a subscription of the late Mrs. Pans who shed at 0.01 Cairo in December. 1904, and after whom the new hospital will probably be named.

EXCELLENT OUTLOOK.

EXCELLENT OUTLOOK.

We are pleased to be in a position to state that the immediate outlook in regard to the mavigation of the Nile is very promising, as the river has provided mode better than was anticipated some few points hack Navigation to Assonan for that high points as good as last year, and it is now on selered that there will be not trouble right up to the end of the season.

This news is of great importance, for only a few weeks back the Irrigation Department of the Public Works Ministry considered that, in view of the seanty supply of water in the river, the tourist steamers would be likely to experience considerable difficulty at the body of the seanty supply of water in the theory of the public to experience considerable difficulty at the body of the season. The season of the river a short time ago, are not likely to be fulfilled, and the high steamers of Cooks and the Angle American Line will be able to go up the river without fear of being stuck owing to the lowness of the river.

All accounts tend to show that the tourist traffic on the river is to be exceptionally heavy this season. At both Assonan and Lauxor the crowds of tourists at this time of ywar is far and away in excess of previous seasons, and the bookings shead for accommodation at Assonan must be speak their rooms some time beforehand, both for the last few days we have been publishing a notice to the effect that visitors wanting a commodation and was until rooms become exeant of the triver will of ourse be interesticed next month, and the tourist companies and hotal keepershave every resson to believe that the present was consumed the ourse be interested next month, and the tourist companies and hotal keepershave every resson to believe that the present was consumed the ourse better that the resent is season will be one of the best, if not the best, ever known in Egypt.
